

YIAG Interactive Workshop on Arbitration

Wednesday 20 May 2015

Hosted by Norton Rose Fulbright

FORMAT

Please join us for an interactive workshop in Moscow on issues relevant to younger members of the arbitration community. The workshop will be run in the traditional LCIA "Tylney Hall"-style of open forum discussion of topics raised by the audience in advance. Participation is encouraged during this session and attendees are requested to submit questions and comments on general issues of practice and procedure in advance of the workshop.

The event will be held at the offices of Norton Rose Fulbright in Moscow with coffee, tea and snacks served during the networking coffee break.

The working language of the workshop is English.

ABOUT YIAG

YIAG is an LCIA sponsored association for students, practitioners and younger members of the arbitration community.

YIAG aims to promote the understanding and use of international arbitration law and practice. The group hosts an annual programme of events, at venues throughout the world, which provide valuable opportunities for its members to exchange views on topical issues in international commercial arbitration and to network with their peers. The upper age limit for membership of YIAG, which is free to join, is 40 years. YIAG currently has over 7,000 members from more than 135 countries.
